

Healthy Students . . . Successful Learners

84th Annual ASHA School Health Conference

October 13 – 16, 2010

Hyatt Regency Crown Center, Kansas City, Missouri

The American School Health Association conference attracts between 600 and 800 attendees.

Since ASHA is a multidisciplinary Association that facilitates coordinated school health, this conference attracts a range of professionals.

Conference Attendees Include

• Health Educators • School Nurses • School Administrators • Safe and Drug Free Coordinators • School Health Coordinators • School Counselor / Other Adolescent-Based Mental Health Service Providers • Family and Consumer Studies Teachers • Sexual Education Teachers • Nutritionist • Pediatricians • Some Physical Education Individuals • University Professors that offer programs related to School Health and their students • CDC's Division of Adolescent and School Health • Government and State Dept. of Education and Health • Community Organizations such as the American Cancer Society.

Attendees by Percentage

- 40% - School Nurses
- 40% - Health Educators and School Health Coordinators
- 20% - Dietitians, Pediatrician/Physicians, Mental Health, and Adolescent Health-Related Association members

Attendee Workplace

- 40% are practitioners
- 30% are government employees
- 13% are from institute of higher education
- 10% are administrators
- 5% are from community organizations
- 2% are independent contractors

Additional Information

Mary Bamer Ramsier

Conference Coordinator

American School Health Association

7263 State Route 43 / PO Box 708

Kent, OH 44240

MBRamsier@ashaweb.org

P: 330/678-1601, ext. 127

F: 330/678-4526