ASHA Policies for Presenters

1. All media contacts prior to and during the conference about a presentation should be made through ASHA Executive Director Susan Wooley, swooley@ashaweb.org.
2. ASHA's commercial disclosure policy prohibits the introduction, representation, and/or selling of services and products, and the use of commercial logos in handouts or on slides in all conference sessions except commercial sessions.

In addition, the policy prohibits selling of services and products outside of the exhibit area. If your proposed presentation will promote specific products or services that are cost items, then you must apply for a commercial session and be a paid exhibitor.

3. ASHA requires that all presenters register for the conference.

For groups of 4 people or more, we offer a Team Discount, if you wish to register as a team, please e-mail the names of the team members prior to registering.

In addition, you may enroll for only one day if you do not plan to attend the entire conference.

4. Presenters who are a no-show for their presentation during the annual conference will not be allowed to present for a three-year period.

If you be unable to make the presentation, please contact Mary Bamer Ramsier in writing. Except in the case of emergency, withdrawal of your presentation must be received by September 10, 2010.

In the case of an emergency after this date, notification must be sent via e-mail to Mary and ASHA's Executive Director will review excuses for absence. Mary can be contacted at mbramsier@ashaweb.org or at 330/678-1601 x127.
