

2010 Award Nominations

The American School Health Association annually honors leaders in school health with the presentation of the William A. Howe Award and the ASHA Distinguished Service Award. Members may recognize the outstanding accomplishments of others by submitting nominations for these awards.

The William A. Howe Award, the Association's highest honor, recognizes individuals for outstanding contributions and distinguished service in school health. Presented in memory of William A. Howe, MD, a founder and first president of the Association, the award acknowledges the recipient's outstanding professional contributions paralleling the aims and objectives of the Association. This award is not limited to ASHA members.

Distinguished Service Awards recognize the exemplary contributions of active or retired ASHA members to the Association. Service to the Association includes offices held, committee memberships, and committee chairs.

If you would like to nominate an individual or individuals for an ASHA award, please fill out the section below.
