

American School Health Association
Criteria for Superintendents' School Health Leadership Award

Superintendent name: _____ District name: _____
 District address: _____ State: _____ District phone number _____
 Nominating person: _____ E-mail of nominating person: _____
 Address of nominating person: _____ Phone number _____
 Nominating person is an ASHA Member ___ Yes ___ No

Complete the following grid in as many areas as possible. Attachments must be limited to one page per criterion
 Refer to How School Administrators Can Demonstrate Support for a Coordinated Approach to Learning and Health
 on the ASHA website for further clarification.

Award Criteria	Yes	Not yet	Please attach supporting documents
1. A statement concerning student and faculty/staff health and well-being has been incorporated into the district's vision/mission statement.			district's vision/mission statement
2. The district has officially appointed someone to oversee a coordinated approach to school health.			name, title, part or full time, qualifications
3. The school health coordinator has a formal job description.			job description
4. The district regularly convenes meetings of the school health council/committee.			sample agenda
5. The district analyzes student health and learning outcome data to determine priorities and target population(s), and uses it to develop a plan for improvement.			sample data, and school health plan
6. The district allocates the necessary resources in support of a coordinated approach to school health.			summary of resources
7. The superintendent formally and regularly communicates the importance of wellness to all students, faculty, staff, and parents.			written communication
8. The superintendent advocates for a coordinated approach to school health both within and outside of the district.			summary
9. The superintendent has provided leadership for adoption of science-based policies and practices to support a coordinated approach to school health.			example of policy and procedures
10. The district's wellness policy incorporates a coordinated approach to school health.			wellness policy
11. The district monitors the implementation of health policies and acts to remedy deficiencies.			summary

If you have answered "yes" and provided supporting evidence for at least 7 of the preceding items, please describe in your own words why you think this superintendent should receive the School Health Leadership Award.